Special Olympics
Ontario

Individuals with an intellectual disability deserve respect and acceptance. Their involvement with Special Olympics programs is more than just sport training and competition: it is a lifeline to friendship and a healthy, active lifestyle.

DONATE

Working towards a common goal of achievement and accomplishment allows Special Olympics athletes to feel confident about setting goals in other areas of their lives: as students, employees, in their families and as community members.

By giving to Special Olympics Ontario, you ensure ALL athletes have an opportunity to prove they are NO different than their peers. Supporting Special Olympics will help athletes see their abilities, not their disability.
